It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Majority violent partisans and unscrupulous men, as is shown by their subsequent conduct.

Conduct of Officers.

From commencement of registration to close of election conduct characterized by gross violations of law; arbitrary and unjust rulings, refusal to register citizens entitled thereto ; discriminations against whites in favor of colored.

Closing of offices during office hours, when the closing delayed or prevented Democrats from registering.

They were supplied with a force of police in citizens' clothes, who had free access to registration offices, and passed colored men in improperly, and delayed or prevented whites.

Knew of my own knowledge one old white man, aged 55, in third ward, P. Creagh supervisor. Remained in line all of one day from 8 A. M., until 3 P. M. of next, awaiting registry, and during this time Republicans appeared at the office and were registered in six minutes' time.

They refused the United States Supervisor the right to scrutinize registry, contrary to the United States Statutes and their orders. (See sec. 2017, U. S. Statutes.)

Concealing Books

They concealed registration books from United States Supervisors in police stations, in the court-house, and in other places not provided by law.

Erasures.

They made erasures of names without notice to United States Supervisors at unseemly hours of the night.

They erased the names of over 9,000 white citizens duly registered and honestly entitled to vote, without due notice, investigation, or proof.

Polling Places.

In several parishes they failed to establish polling places in each justice of the peace ward, as required by act 98.

Depriving Whites of an Opportunity to Register.

In several parishes they failed and refused to visit localities inhabited by whites, thus depriving them of opportunity to register.

Poll Lists.

They caused incorrect poll lists to be printed, omitting a large number of names of the whites.

Absent from Offices

They absented themselves from their offices during the period of revision of registration, in violation of law, thus delaying and preventing citizens from correcting and verifying their registration.

Refusal to Examine Affidavits or Strike off Colored Frauds.

They refused to examine evidence against colored persons fraudulently registered—8900 affidavits against colored frauds in New Orleans were presented as required by law, both to State Registrar of votes and to Supervisors ; they refused to receive or consider them.

Seventh Ward.

A notable instance was seventh ward, New Orleans, W. J. Moore Supervisor. Vote in 1874 was about fifty Democratic majority.

In 1876 Moore was candidate for Legislature. We proved 247 colored frauds, by affidavits in each case of two respectable citizens, registered voters in the ward. Supervisor refused to erase them. We proved that a large number voted November 7th. Eighty-seven cases were presented to grand jury, and under the advice of Assistant Attorney General Dibble, chairman Republican Campaign Committee, indictments were not found. Over 400 names were surreptitiously entered upon registration of this ward, under duplicate numbers and registration papers issued to different persons under same number.

The Supervisor erased the names of over 200 persons, and 106 such persons made affidavit to having been refused right to vote, attaching to affidavit Democratic ticket and registration papers.

On election day the Supervisor absented himself from the registration office, and could not be found to correct errors or omissions.

On day after election absented himself and could not be found by Commissioners of Poll 3 during twenty-four hours, and then omitted from the poll 332 Democratic and 159 Republican votes, and thus caused 3 Republican representatives to be returned as elected, one of whom being the Supervisor who had made the registration and revision.

Returning Board.

Was of counsel representing the Conservative and Democratic candidates before the Louisiana Returning Board ; Democratic and Conservative counsel confined themselves to the defense of the parishes attacked by the Republican candidates and officials, and were not afforded time or facilities to attack Republican frauds and irregularities in election, although much evidence was in our possession establishing said frauds and irregularities; there was a fraudulent colored registry in the State of fully 25,000.

These frauds were greatest in the parishes giving large colored majorities. Section 2, Act 98 of election law, requires that the five members of the Returning Board shall be from all political parties. Demand was made for the election of representatives of the Democratic and Conservative party to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Oscar Arroyo, a Democrat, who resigned in 1875. Dates of said demands, November 10, 16, 17, and 21. (See proceedings Returning Board, pages 13, 16, 17, and 23.)

The board failed and refused to fill the vacancy or accord the Democratic party a representative.

The rulings of the board were contradictory and uniformly operated to the disadvantage of the Democratic and Conservative party. (See pages 23, 24, 46, 47, 55, 57, 67, 68, 86, 100, 125, and 130.)

Rule 9 prohibited the receipt of ex parte affidavits; and such affidavits were subsequently received in the interest of the Republican party.

In the cases of Ouachita, Morehouse, East Baton Rouge, East and West Feliciana, the board had given counsel to understand that where ex parte affidavits had been received in behalf of the Republican party, they would permit the Democratic and Conservative party likewise to file ex parte affidavits. We proceeded at once, by telegrams and letters to our friends in the parishes, as rapidly as we could learn the contents of the affidavits filed by the Republican party, to invite our friends to procure affidavits in rebuttal. And we did procure and offer a large number of said affidavits from all the parishes in which violence and intimidation were charged. These affidavits were tendered to the Returning Board and refused. The pages of testimony by me referred to, show the rules established, the dates on which the rules were changed and modified, and the protest made by the counsel representing the Democratic and Conservative party. The modification of the rules worked a peculiar hardship in many of the parishes, as we had relied upon the introduction of ex parte testimony; and it was only late in the sessions of the board that we were notified that we would be required to produce the witnesses and too late to procure a full attendance.

The contents of the protests, made in the interests of the Republican party, were not disclosed to counsel until after the 23d of November, and some of the parishes charged with violence and intimidation were opened as late as the 29th of November, and the open sessions of the board terminated December 2d, after which time no testimony was admitted.

Many of the parishes were remote, requiring four, five, six, and seven days to communicate and procure witnesses; it will be seen that adequate time was not accorded the Democratic and Conservative counsel to rebut the Republican testimony.

It is apparent from the proceedings of the board that they purposely delayed opening the returns from the parishes in which violence and intimidation were charged, and that in some cases the members of the board were aware of the fact that protests existed, although the returns had not then been opened.

The candidates and citizens in the parishes charged with intimidation, violence, &c., had no opportunity to know the nature of the charges made, as no copies of protests and charges of violence and intimidation had been filed with the copy of returns delivered to the Clerks of the District Courts. Certificates from the Clerks of the District Courts for the parishes referred to, certifying that there were no protests filed with the Clerks of the Courts, as required by law, are in evidence before the Morrison committee.

Reference to the Republican testimony exhibits the fact that nearly all of it was made in the city of New Orleans, in the Custom-house, before F. A. Woolfley, United States Commissioner, from ten to twenty days after the date of the execution and filing of the returns with District Courts of the parishes.

East Baton Rouge.

(See pages 42, 44, 46, 55, 56, 57, 71, 96, 121, 127.)

In the parish of East Baton Rouge the returns were opened on Friday, November 24. Received by the Returning Board on November 23. Were permitted to make copies of protest on November 25. Protests dated 18, and affidavits 15, 16, 18, 20, 23, and 24th days of November.

No protest was filed with the District Court. Consolidated return dated November 11. The vote cast in this parish was 2,238 Democratic, 1,626 Republican. Returning Board threw out Polls 12 and 14—306 Democratic and 70 Republican, and refused to count Polls 1, 5, 6, 7, 8 9, and 13—1,136 Democratic and 150 Republican, omitted from the returns by the Supervisor.

Caldwell Parish.

(See page 61.)

Returns received November 14; sworn to November 9.

The only protest disclosed at the opening, November 27, was the general protest of Messrs. Packard, Brewster and others, filed November 25. No copy of same with the Clerk of the District Court.

The vote cast in this parish was 631 Democratic and 285 Republican, and the board threw out Poll 1—141 Democratic and 174 Republican votes.

De Soto Parish.

(See pages 53, 54, 57, 66, 68.)

Returns dated November 10 were opened Saturday, November 25. The package was post marked, stamped and sealed apparently, and was held up before all the persons assembled by Mr. Anderson, showing the red seal, apparently, the stamps and post marks, and the registry stamps of the package, as if to say that that package was certainly all right.

The clerk of the Returning Board, Mr. Abell, was called upon to know when the package was received, and he replied that it was received November 18. The package was opened, and it contained the list of voters, poll sheets, statement of votes and consolidated statement. Attention was called to the fact by myself and Mr. Guthro, that the protests and affidavits were dated November 25, although it was post marked, sealed and stamped Mansfield, November 14.

That fact being disclosed, it created quite a commotion in the board, and there were various attempts made to explain how it was that affidavits made on the 25th could get into a package mailed in Mansfield on the 14th, and received in New Orleans on the 18th, with canceled stamps. The clerk of the board left the room, and returned in a few minutes with another package, which he said was the one received on the 18th, but that he had made a mistake. And Mr. Stoughton endeavored to explain the manner in which the package had been received, and it seemed quite satisfactory to him. And when he made an explanation, Senator Sherman called attention to the fact that that package was probably brought to the city by the Supervisor and his affidavit made here and put in the package on that day. I sat there by the table where Senator Sherman and Mr. Stoughton were discussing the matter and called Senator Sherman's attention to the fact of the post mark and that it was stamped with the registered label. Senator Sherman replied, in my hearing and in the hearing of Mr. Guthro and Mr. McGlorin, "There is no question but the returns have been tampered with."

The vote of this parish was 1,304 Democratic and 898 Republican. The board threw out of Polls 1, 3, 5, 7, and 8, 692 Democratic, and 181 Republican.

East Feliciana.

(See pages 50, 51, and 53.)

Returns sworn November 10. Returns opened Saturday, November 25, received by mail November 13.

The affidavits, protests, statements, &c., were contained in a separate package, and were dated November 21 and 23.

There was no protest on the face of the consolidated statement, which was sworn to by J. E. Anderson before F. Wepflin, Justice of the Peace, November 10. The affidavits which accompanied it, in a separate package, dated November 25, sworn to before Mr. Woolfley, in the Custom-house at New Orleans.

The vote cast was 1736 Democratic, 1 Republican. The board threw out the entire vote of the parish.

West Feliciana.

Returns sworn November 13; opened November 25; received on the 14th of November.

No protest or remarks on the face of the consolidated returns.

There was a package of affidavits from D. A. Weber and others, not attached to the returns. Governor Wells' attention was called to the fact. He then replied, "We consider that any document accompanying the compilation need not be attached; it is not absolutely necessary. (See page 49.)

Judge Trumbull asked when these returns were received; the clerk replied, "The 14th of November." Judge Trumbull asked if these affidavits came with the returns. Anderson replied, "Yes, sir, they were in the package."

General Smith remarked, "No, they were in separate bundles."

Judge Trumbull: When is that dated? The 20th is it?

Anderson: That is sworn to on the 21st day of November.

Trumbull: Were they wrapped up in the returns?

Wells: No, sir.

Anderson: This is part of the paper sworn to before T. A. Woolfley U. S. Commissioner, Circuit Court New Orleans, &c.

In the proceedings of the board of November the 18th the clerk of the Returning Board acknowledged that the returns of West Feliciana were then in his possession.

Notwithstanding this statement, affidavits were produced, dated the 21st of November.

The vote cast was 1148 Democratic, and 778 Republican. The Board threw out Polls 2, 3, 4, 5, 9 and 10—1010 Democratic, and 154 Republican.

Franklin Parish.

(See pages 46, 66, 68, 69 and 112.)

Had great difficulty in getting the returns before the Returning Board. The Supervisor had forwarded them by express to M. Hahn, State Registrar of votes. The returns were sworn to November the 9th, before the clerk of the 10th Judicial District.

No remarks and no protests on the face of the returns which reached the city of New Orleans on the 14th of November by express. State Registrar Hahn was notified repeatedly by the agents of the express company. Charges on the package were 75 cents. Hahn failed and refused to take them out of the office. The Returning Board was notified of the fact, and we offered to advance the money to pay the charges upon them. After twice calling the attention of the board to the fact that they were at the express office, we paid the charges and caused the agent to take the returns to the board. This parish cast 789 Democratic and 129 Republican votes, and the Returning Board threw out 74 Democratic and 28 Republican votes.

Livingston Parish.

(See pages 66, 94, 110, 111, 112, 113.)

Opened November 29. Received by the board from State Registrar of voters on November 29. Returns not sealed. Had been opened in State Registrar's office, certified as sworn to November 11, before W. C. Davis, clerk of the court. No protests on the face of the consolidated returns, only Packard's general protest.

The vote of this parish was 769 Democratic, 121 Republican. The Returning Board threw out 378 Democratic and no Republican votes.

Lafayette Parish.

(See pages 42, 66, 96, 117, 129.)

Opened November 29th. Received by the board from the Supervisor November 29. Sworn to November 14. A number of protests and affidavits accompanying, which were dated November 28.

This parish's returns made up by a clerk named Clegg, who came to New Orleans with the Supervisor, bringing the returns.

The Supervisor repeatedly informed Mr. Clegg that the returns were all straight and correct, and no protest. And he informed Mr. Clegg that he had delivered the returns to the board without any protests. That information was given to Mr. Clegg between the 14th and 20th of November. Clegg returned to Lafayette, and was much surprised when the returns were opened on the 29th, and he discovered the existence of the protests.

When charged by the people of the parish with having made these protests, the Supervisor first denied it, and then subsequently admitted the fact. This parish cast 1156 Democratic, and 661 Republican votes, and the Returning Board threw out 83 Democratic, and 4 Republican votes, and refused to count Polls 1 and 3; which cast 435 Democratic, and 3 Republican votes.

Morehouse Parish.

(See pages 32, 42, 45, and 64.)

Opened November 27th. Received from State Registrar of voters, November the 27th, in two packages, one marked, "F. M. Grant, care of Mr. M. Hahn, State Registrar of voters;" one marked, "J. Madison Wells, President Returning Board." There were a number of affidavits and protests accompanying the consolidated statement, sworn to before the clerk of the 4th Judicial District on the 16th of November, but they were not attached to the consolidated statements, as required by law. The consolidated statement, signed by the Supervisor, was dated November 11th.

This parish cast 1,377 Democratic and 782 Republican votes; and the Returning Board threw out 915 Democratic and 355 Republican votes.

Natchitoches Parish.

(See pages 35, 36, 37, and 38.)

November 23d Governor Wells agreed to send a messenger with me, upon my statement that I would point out where the returns of the Parish of Morehouse were held in the city, and when he discovered that I knew where the returns were, he declined to send for them.

Opened Thursday, November 23d, three packages, one addressed to the Secretary of State, received by mail, and two were addressed to the Returning Board. Upon this package being opened, General Anderson remarked that they were found properly certified to and sworn, and no protest.

The Returning Board have not only thrown out two polls in that parish, giving 343 Democratic and 7 Republican votes, but have counted for five electors 535 votes that there was no evidence presented to the board showing that they had been cast. The consolidated return of the Supervisor was dated November 10th.

1,761 Democratic, and 2,099 Republican votes were cast in this parish.

Ouachita Parish.

(See pages 42, 51, 57, 69, 71, 94, 95, 96, 97, and 130.)

Opened Saturday, November 25th, which was the first opportunity we had to know the protest against that parish. The protests were addressed to J. M. Wells and other Returning officers of the State. The consolidated statement of votes was delivered in person by M. J. Grady, Supervisor, November 24th. Was sworn to before J. Ennemoser, clerk of the court of the parish, November 11th.

There was, accompanying the returns, a package, which was not inclosed with the returns of that parish, and were in no wise attached to the returns, containing affidavits, dated November 23d. I refer particularly to the affidavit of Eliza Pinkston.

(See General Anderson's statement, page 51.)

Referring to the returns, Mr. Trumbull said: When was it received?

General Anderson: Delivered in person; I don't know when.

Governor Wells: Get the book; let us see.

Abell, (clerk): Received on the 24th of November.

Wells: Oh, yes; yesterday. Here are some other documents; they had better go with the papers; let the gentlemen give receipts for them.

I witnessed that proceeding and the documents were passed over, which was the affidavit of Eliza Pinkston and communication from the Supervisor of Registration, which read as follows:

“NEW ORLEANS, November 23, 1876.

C. S. ABELL, Esq., Secretary Returning Board:

Inclosed please find affidavit of Eliza Pinkston, which I received too late to file with my returns. Please see that it is brought in with the other affidavits filed with my returns.

Respectfully,

(Signed)

M. J. GRADY,

Supervisor at Ouachita.

General Anderson stated that the only objection on the face of the consolidated statement was concerning a poll, the Commissioners having received no papers, and they directed all voters to go to the next nearest poll.

The United States Supervisor certifies to the correctness of the consolidated statement, also that the election was carried on in a peaceable and fair manner.

This is also corroborated by Mr. M. J. Grady, Supervisor of Registration, and by Julius Ennemoser, who certifies that he examined the statement of consolidated votes, with the original statement of votes, and found the same correct.

Judge Trumbull: There is no protest on the paper itself.

General Anderson: These protests were attached to it.

Judge Trumbull: What is the date of these protests attached to it?

General Anderson: Twenty-first of November.

Judge Trumbull: Where do they purport to have been made?

Governor Wells: Before Woolfley, in this city, parish of Orleans ; he has his office in the Custom-house ; he is a clerk of the United States Court.

Gov. Palmer : I believe General Anderson and Governor Wells said these affidavits were received here so ?

Gov. Wells : Yes, sir ; were attached.

Gen. Anderson : Yes, sir ; with a string and seal.

Now a number of affidavits were attached with a string and a seal, but the Pinkston affidavit and a large number of others were not attached to my personal knowledge. I recollect distinctly the motion of Governor Wells when he gathered the papers up and passed them over to Mr. Anderson, who bundled them up with the returns and sent them out to the clerk. They were smuggled in with the balance of the returns.

This parish cast 1,865 Democratic and 793 Republican votes, and the Returning Board threw out 1,517 Democratic and 48 Republican votes.

Richland Parish.

(See pages 51 and 52.)

Opened Saturday, November 25th ; sworn to before J. N. Pitts, clerk of 14th Judicial District Court, November 10th ; received November 13th.

General Anderson remarked that the only remarks on the face of the consolidated statement were about the votes and nothing else. Here are the protests and oaths against this court :

Mr. Guthro : Are they sworn to ?

Gov. Wells : They are Democratic protests ; they must be.

Gen. Anderson : I don't see where they are sworn to—Yes, there is one.

Mr. Burke : Is there any protest filed affecting the electoral vote ?

And some member of the board remarked that the parish was embraced in the general protest of Packard and others. But at the election there was no objection by the Supervisor and no protest from any other party was attached to the returns or accompanying them except as to the irregularities charged by Democrats against Republicans.

This parish cast 963 Democratic and 277 Republican votes; and the Returning Board threw out 770 Democratic and 157 Republican votes.

Parish of St. Landry.

Opened Monday, November 27th, four packages, three of them not sealed and in very bad order, signed and sworn to on the 15th of November, before the clerk of the 15th Judicial District Court.

Mr. Wells remarked that there was a pile of protests, but they are for the local officers.

The protests in the case of this parish were dated November 27th, the same day the returns were delivered to the Returning Board, and were made in the city of New Orleans.

This parish cast 3,746 Democratic and 2,432 Republican votes; and the Returning Board threw out 120 Democratic and 38 Republican votes.

Tangipahoa Parish.

(See pages 66, 96, 111, 128, 131, 132.)

Opened Wednesday, November 29th; received Wednesday, 29th, 12 o'clock; signed and sworn to November 28th; protests accompanying the consolidated statement sworn to on the 28th of November, before the Secretary of State. We had made great exertions to procure these returns.

The Supervisor was reported to be a drunken, worthless cuss, and I sent to the parish to try to get him sober long enough to make his returns. He sent back word to me that he would make up his returns and file them if I would pay him $200. We were out of funds, and not purchasing. I presume he found a better market.

This parish cast 930 Democratic and 565 Republican votes; and the Returning Board threw out 76 Democratic and no Republican votes, and the Supervisor failed and refused to return 10, casting 43 Democratic votes and 16 Republican.

Vernon Parish.

Opened November 29th, sworn to November 9th before deputy clerk of the court. No protest alluded to. Gov. Wells said that nobody had raised any objection; only some person had suggested that the tally-sheets, or some tally-sheets, were not inclosed, the vote was announced. The clerk of the Returning Board had announced, November 18th, that these returns were on hand.

The Democratic vote was 647, the Republican vote 2, and there was no protest whatsoever against it. And yet, strange to say, when the returns were announced there had been a loss of 178 votes on the part of the Democratic candidates, and equally strange a gain on the part of the Republican candidates of 178 votes that were never cast for them.

Mr. Townsend, of Morrison's committee, stated during my examination: "I think it has been admitted that it was a clerical error."

It changed the result for Judge, District Attorney, and member of the Legislature.

In 1874 there were 712 Democratic and no Republican votes polled in that parish. According to the Republican census of 1875, there were but 77 colored persons residing in the parish.

Webster Parish.

(See pages 60, 68, and 96.)

Opened Monday, November 27th. Abell, the clerk, said the returns were left with him on the 27th, by the Supervisor, sworn and subscribed by Morrow, Supervisor, November 11th, before J. T. Gordy, Justice of the Peace.

The only remarks on the consolidated returns concerned certain ballots rejected on account of being double ballots.

Mr. Kenner handed over a bundle, which he said were affidavits. The bundle with these affidavits were not attached to the returns. (See page 60.)

This parish cast 886 Democratic and 864 Republican votes; and the Returning Board threw out 446 Democratic votes and 194 Republican votes.

Lafourche Parish.

(See pages 29, 32, and 33.)

Opened Wednesday, November 22d. Remarks on the face of the consolidated returns, which were the only affidavits against the polls of that parish, were against Polls 4 and 7, stating that many Republicans were prevented from voting.

Poll 2 was protested against by S. N. Snaer and Charles S. Nichols.

Poll No. 10. Supervisor stated that no return had been received, and that the box of this poll was delivered by the Democratic Supervisor of Elections, named Sullivan, who was in a drunken state; that he was compelled to receive the box amidst violent demonstrations.

General Anderson: I don't see any protests here, except the remarks of the Supervisor—the consolidated statement—duly sworn to and certified. I see nothing here but the same statement of that fact; but they don't state so themselves.

Governor Palmer, (page 30): I wish to state that while this was going on I received a number of affidavits in regard to Poll 10. They will be presented to you to-morrow by the proper persons. (He alluded to Democratic affidavits rebutting the charges made.)

The consolidated statement was sworn to November 9.

The vote cast in this parish was 2,005 Democratic and 2,013 Republican, and the Returning Board failed to count Polls 2 and 10, casting 313 Democratic, and 146 Republican votes.

(Pages (60) 58 and 68.)

Received Monday, November 27th; opened November 27th; sworn to by Supervisor November 13th before the clerk of the District Court. Full vote returned by the Supervisor.

Under column of "Remarks" Supervisor stated, "returns Poll 1 not returned" on the 8th of November, and when sent in no sworn statement with the box; only tally-sheet.

Poll 3, gross fraud; 3 Democratic commissioners in violation of law.

The vote polled in this parish was 883 Democratic and 1,703 Republican. The Returning Board threw out Polls 1 and 3, which cast 280 Democratic and 78 Republican votes. No charges against this parish in Mr. Sherman's report.

Received by State Registrar November 16th; opened November 27th.

In reply to the question from Judge Trumbull, if the State Registrar was the proper person to receive the returns, Gen. Anderson said "yes, the law allows them to be returned to him or to the board; a great many of them are directed to him."

The law says no such thing. (See section 43, election laws.)

The vote cast in this parish was, Democratic 907, Republican 820, and the board threw out Poll (C) 5, Poll (C) 15, casting 97 Democratic and 20 Republican votes. There was no protest of intimidation or violation at either one of these polls, and the only protest was one declaring that more votes were polled at certain polls than there were voters, which, upon investigation, was simply found that J. F. King had received 57 votes for Presidential Elector of the fifth district. King was not a candidate. King was a candidate for some parish office and the Commissioners or Supervisor had tallied 57 votes for him as a Presidential Elector at this poll.

The vote cast at the poll was:

Wickliffe,	88
St. Martin,	88
Poche,	88
McEnery,	62

The Supervisor added the 62 votes of McEnery's to the 57 tallied for J. F. King, as an Elector, which made 119, whilst the highest Elector on the Democratic side had only received 88. Therefore he inferred that there were more votes than voters.

The facts were that it was simply an error in making up the tally sheet, putting King's name down as a Presidential Elector when he was a candidate for some other office. Mc-

Enery was scratched so that he only received 62 votes, whilst the other Democratic Electors received 88.

(No reference to this parish in Mr. Sherman's report.)

St. Charles.

The only question concerning this parish was as to the legality or illegality of Poll No. 7, where 2 polling places were opened. The Supervisor had designated the polling place and had appointed three Commissioners of Election and the necessary Peace Officer, who had charge of the ballot-box and papers. Promptly at 6 o'clock A. M., as required by law, the Democratic Commissioner was on hand, ready to perform his duties. The two Republican Commissioners failed to appear. After waiting some time he selected a citizen to act as Commissioner, swore him in, and the two selected a third, who was likewise sworn in and the Republican constable turned over to them the ballot-box, papers, &c., and they opened a poll in conformity with law, at which there were polled 33 Democratic and 9 Republican votes.

About two hours after the poll had been opened the two Republican Commissioners appeared and demanded to be installed in the performance of their duties as Commissioners, which was refused, whereupon, they went off to a colored church near by and opened a poll, receiving the ballots in a candle box—100 Republican and 3 Democratic.

The board rejected the poll which was opened according to law, 33 Democratic and 9 Republican votes, and counted the illegal votes polled in the candle box.

No reference to this parish in Mr. Sherman's report.

Claiborne.

(Pages 43, (60), 61.

Received by mail, November 14th, two packages; one mailed from Homer November 10th, and one mailed from Homer November 11th; seals broken at the end and attention of the board called to the fact by Colonel Zachrie. Only remarks were as to scattering votes, so said Kenner, of board, and Green, clerk.

The vote cast in this parish was Democratic, 1,576; Republican, 432, and the Returning Board threw out Poll No. 3—Democratic votes 184, Republican none. Colonel Zachrie asked, "Is there any protest in that package?"

Mr. Kenner: "No, sir."

Mr. Green, clerk: "Are there any protests in the parish of Clairborne?"

Mr. Green: "No, sir; none sir; none except a general protest."

Governor Wells said there was a lengthy statement from the Supervisors not attached to returns and dated November 24, accompanied by two affidavits which were entirely rebutted before Mr. Meades' committee.

The Supervisor of this parish is a clerk in the New Orleans Post-office, resident of New Orleans, and was sent to the parish to do such work; drew his pay from State and from Post-office Department same time.

Iberia.

(See pages 21, 44, and 45.)

Return is sworn to November 10th. On hand, November 18th; opened November 24th.

The only protest was concerning Poll 4, Third Ward, where the Supervisor alleged that the Commissioners had not written the word "voted" across the certificates of the voters as soon as they had deposited their ballots. There was no statement from the Commissioners; no affidavits from citizens, and no evidence that anybody had voted twice; but, because the Republican Commissioners had failed to do their duty, the board rejected Poll No. 4—322 Democratic, and 11 Republican votes.

The total vote polled in this parish was 1,247 Democratic, and 1,452 Republican.

No charges against this parish in Mr. Sherman's report.

Grant.

(See pages 66, 96, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 117, and 118.)

The statement of votes made by the Commissioners of Election in this parish was returned to the Republican and the Democratic United States Supervisors by the Commissioners, at the request of the Chairmen of the Executive Committees of the Republican and Democratic parties in Grant Parish, and by the consent of the candidates of both parties.

The State Supervisor had designated the polling-places, appointed the Commissioners of Election, and had then absented himself from the parish on the day of election, in collusion with Governor Kellogg, (as was proved before the Morrison committee,) and the Republican and Democratic United States Supervisors made out a consolidated return, and forwarded the same, together with the statement of votes of the Commissioners of Election, to the Returning Board, and Mr. Richardson, United States Supervisor, delivered all the returns to the Returning Board in person, November 29th; and the vote was announced.

After Mr. Richardson made a full explanation of all the facts concerning the election, the board laid the parish over for consideration. The statement of votes of the Commissioners of Election and tally-sheets were all in perfect order, according to law, and the board threw out the vote of the entire parish, seven polls, 522 Democratic and 398 Republican votes. (See extended testimony before Morrison committee,) and full testimony filed before the Returning Board from D. A. Ward, Supervisor, W. L. Richardson, U. S. Supervisor, and E. A. Burke, fully refuting all charges of irregularity except as to the absence of Ward, and proving Kellogg's complicity. Mr. Sherman reports all the testimony and interrogatories against the parish and none in its favor.

Parish of Orleans.

Ward 2, Poll 6. Returns received November 20th; opened November 29th.

No allegation of intimidation. Supervisor Brim certified on consolidated return in column of remarks, that the return made by the Commissioner was so indistinct and imperfect, he could not embrace it in his consolidated return, and so he forwarded the tally sheet statement of votes, &c., to the Returning Board.

It was hard to say whether at Pole 6, De Blanc, an elector, got 247 or 249. The tally sheet shows 249 plainly. Burke suggested sending to the Secretary of State to verify figures.

Board with tally sheets before them cast out the poll, 248 Democratic and 93 Republican votes.

Ward 11, Poll 2. Returns dated November 18th; opened November 27th.

Louis Backer, Supervisor, swore to return on November 13th, before the Secretary of State; omitted Poll 2. Stated under head of remarks: "Tally-sheet statement of votes not delivered to him by the Commissioners."

All charges against this poll were fully refuted by ample evidence before the board, and the open proceedings of the board show that the original tally-sheet was forwarded by Backers to the board, there opened and examined, and found to be signed by the two Republican and one Democratic Commissioner, the Republican and Democratic Supervisors, and the Republican United States Deputy Marshal.

The board failed to count Poll 2, casting 413 Democratic and 94 Republican votes.

Ward 7, Poll 3. Returns sworn to November 13th; opened November 27th.

Supervisor omitted poll because he had not received the statement from Commissioners within twenty-four hours.

Proof was made before the board that the Supervisor had absented himself from office on the day after the election and could not be found by the Commissioners.

The board failed to count this poll, which cast 332 Democratic and 160 Republican votes.

In no case were the protests, affidavits, statements of riot, violence, intimidation, &c., attached to the Supervisors' consolidated returns from any parish in the State in the manner required by law, (Sec. 26, election law,) except in the case of the parish of Concordia.

In none of the preceding parishes were protests filed with clerks or District Courts.

These statements clearly establish the fact that in the proceeding ex parte testimony was received in the interest of the Republican party, notwithstanding the fact that Governor Wells had declared, November 20, that the time for filing contests had expired. (See pages 5 and 13.)

The Democratic and Conservative counsel repeatedly demanded an opportunity to verify the returns and to get copies of the charges and protests against these parishes. (See pages 6, 7, 8, 11, 13, 14 and 16.)

It will be seen the very dates at which those parishes that had been attacked were opened that all the parishes against which Republicans charged violence and intimidation, instead of being opened early in the proceedings of the Returning Board, and each party permitted to have copies of the affidavits upon which the charges were based, and therefore have been enabled to procure the necessary proofs to fully set forth the facts to the Returning Board—instead of that course being pursued it will be observed by the record of the proceedings that it was about the 24th, 25th, 26th, 28th and 29th of November, a very few days before the close of the labors of the board, before the charges against the Democratic parishes were ever made known, or the Democratic counsel were permitted to know the contents of the affidavits that had been filed before the Returning Board.

Therefore witnesses being located in remote parts of the State it was impossible to procure the testimony which the Democratic and Conservative party could have brought to bear. But by the use of the telegraph large numbers of witnesses were brought to New Orleans, especially from the parishes against which the principal charges were made. And I do assert that the examination of that testimony, compared with the testimony filed before the Returning Board, would fully substantiate the fairness of the election in those parishes.

I claim that the evidence which was before that board in rebuttal of the Republican testimony, if it had been produced, was sufficient to have fully vindicated the fairness of the election.

On page 19 General Anderson remarked that the law allows the Supervisor to send the returns to the State Registrar of Voters or to the board either.

The law allows no such thing. The law says that the returns shall be forwarded by mail to the Returning officers. Repeated protests were made by the Democratic and Conservative counsel against the holding of secret sessions by the board. (See pages 9, 15.)

See resolution, page 9, inviting distinguished citizens to witness the canvass and count November 18, and on page 12 Governor Wells said:

"We have given to each party of the invited guests places here; they have reporters, and will remain with us during the whole of our session; they will see the opening of the votes," &c.

But the nature of the preamble and resolution, and the declaration made by Governor Wells, was to lead the country to believe that the entire proceedings of that board were to be made in the view of the distinguished gentlemen who were witnessing the count.

Such was not the case.

They simply broke the package, read off the total vote upon the consolidated statement, and made but a casual examination of the returns in the presence of those gentlemen. No return was finally canvassed or compiled or passed upon by the Returning Board, in the presence of the distinguished gentlemen that they had invited to witness and canvass the count.

On page 27, Governor Wickliffe, an electoral candidate, applied for permission to witness the count, to Governor Wells; and received a reply from the secretary of the board, stating that the board had granted the permission. When he formally appeared with the view of witnessing the proceedings, the permission was revoked, and the statement made that the letter had been written by the clerk, and unauthorized.

Oscar Joffrion was a Supervisor of Registration during the registration and revision of registration and election, and was also a candidate for elector on the Republican ticket. (See page 21.) Application was made by the United States Supervisor of Elections for permission to witness the count, as they were entitled to do by law. (Section 2017 of the United States Statutes, entitled "Duties of Supervisors of Election.") The rights of United States Supervisors under this section of the United States Statutes were constantly denied by the Supervisors of Registration in the Parish of Orleans, and in the various parishes in this State, as fully established by testimony before the Morrison committee. They were denied the right to question applicants, and take the names of parties registered; to investigate the registration books; to be present when the names were stricken off, and treated with contempt from the time they were assigned to duty until the time they finally completed their labors.

Every application for permission to witness canvass and the compilation of the returns either by candidates, counsel, or U. S. Supervisors, was refused.

The board repeatedly stated that the Supervisors' returns should be taken as prima facie evidence of the vote. In other words, they would not go behind the face of the returns of the Supervisors except to reject for violence, intimidation, &c. (See pages 1, 21, 22, 23, 132.) And notwithstanding this fact they have counted votes in Concordia, Natchitoches, Madison, and Vernon, where there were no returns before them that exhibited the fact that they had been cast. They failed and refused to go behind the face of the return when it was in the interest of the Democratic party and where polls had been omitted.

In the parish of Concordia there were 518 votes counted for five electors—no such vote exhibited upon the tally sheets, statement of votes, or consolidated returns of Supervisors of Election. In Natchitoches they counted 535 votes for five electors not exhibited on the tally sheets, statement of votes, or consolidated returns of Supervisors. In Madison parish they counted 63 Republican votes for which they had no tally sheets, statement of votes, or consolidated returns of Supervisors of Election. The evidence shows that the ballot-box had been seized and carried off by an opposing faction of Republicans at 6 o'clock, P. M., before a ticket had been counted.

The total of these votes, so counted and not embraced in any returns before the board—

Kellogg,	234	Burch,	241
Joseph,	1,362	Sheldon,	1,364
Marks,	1,334	Levissee,	829
Brewster,	776	Joffrion,	1,364

The above were Republican candidates.

For the Democratic candidates :

McEnergy,	13	St. Martin,	13
Poche,	14	DeBlanc,	13
Cobb,	13	Cross,	13

In the parish of Concordia, if the board had adhered to their ruling, that the consolidated statement was prima facie evidence of the vote, they would have thrown out 1,353 for the Republican Electors, and 126 votes for the Democratic Electors, as the Supervisor omitted them from his regular returns, and made the same character of protests against Polls 2, 3, and 4, as were made in other parishes against Democratic polls. These protests and affidavits were all in form, attached to his returns, accompanied and sustained by the affidavits of the Commissioners of Elections and citizens, as required by law; were duly filed within the time required by law; and if the same rule had been applied to this parish as was applied against the Democratic parishes, Polls 2, 3, and 4 would have been thrown out.

The charges of riot, violence, tumult, and disorder were, in this instance, made by the Republican Supervisor against members of the Republican party. There were two factions in the parish in the Republican party. One faction is said to have been bull-dozed by the other. Pistols were drawn; the gallery of the voting-place was broken down. In one instance, testimony was produced, proving that Dave Yancy, a candidate on the State ticket, was seen with his hands in the ballot-box when the vote was being counted.

Notwithstanding these facts, the Returning Board not only counted the entire vote of the polls rejected by the Supervisors, but, in addition thereto, counted 588 votes for the Republican Electors on the Republican ticket, which neither poll-sheets nor consolidated statements of Supervisors showed had been cast.

When we discovered Supervisors of Registration failed and refused to deliver over the returns to the Returning Board, and that many of them had brought their returns to New Orleans, and were not delivering them to the Returning Board, due protest was made. (See page 31.)

The hearing of the case of East Baton Rouge was fixed for Monday, (see page 32,) and without notice to counsel the case of East Baton Rouge was laid over, and the case of the Parish of Ouachita was taken up, without ten minutes' notice to our counsel. Witnesses that had been carefully prepared in the Custom-house were brought in and introduced to the Returning Board by the Republican party. Witnesses that had been telegraphed for from Ouachita, being the parties who were charged with the crimes that were alleged to have been committed, were on their way from Ouachita—that fact was stated to the Returning Board, notwithstanding which, they insisted upon going ahead with the first case, before the Republican testimony had all been heard; a large number of such witnesses were present in New Orleans, anxious and ready to testify, and the board refused to hear them, notwithstanding the fact that they had admitted a large amount of ex parte testimony from the Republican side.

There was added to the registration in New Orleans in 1876 the names of 5,500 whites, and the records of the Registration and Election Committee, offered in evidence, shows that so arbitrary and unfair were the officers of registration that 2,615 individual cases of complaint of whites against registration officers for refusal to register, arbitrary and illegal conduct requiring correspondence with State authorities, or proceedings in court to enforce their rights.

Demands were repeatedly made upon Gov. Kellogg for the removal of officers for such violations of the law and improper conduct, but not one removal was made by him for such cause from the commencement of the registration to the close of the election.

The Supervisors treated the orders of the State Registrars with contempt, and the State Registrars informed me that they were appointed upon the recommendation of the Republican Campaign Committee, and were more under their control than his.

Personally appeared before me, Charles S. Rice, a duly appointed United States Commissioner in and for the District of Louisiana, E. A. Burke, to me well known, who, upon being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that the vote actually cast at the late election held November 7th, 1876, in Louisiana, for Presidential electors, was, for

ENTITLED TO VOTE.

The State Census of 1875 was conducted mainly by the same officials who supervised the registration, and much evidence has been produced showing that there was a discrimination unfavorable to the whites in the enumeration.

Adopting, however, the State Census of 1875, and allowing one voter for each five of population in 56 parishes, and for the native white and colored in New Orleans, and to this sum adding the naturalized foreigners in New Orleans, we find the following result, viz:
